L HOTEL SEMINYAK BALI

The brand started by accident and passion. The Owners, a group of traders & hoteliers, desired to bring boutique luxury to Bali, making it the flagship destination to grow a modern chic and quintessential brand. So L Hotel was born – the alphabet L evoking connotations of emotions and intrinsic values like 'Love', 'Life', 'Lush', 'Luxury', 'Longevity' and above all, the very idea of Live Life and its carpe diem quality – and it was designed to provide ultimate intimacy and engagement with its guests in the marriage of heritage and modernity. With the personalised touch of butlers, inventive culinary concepts and lifestyle accents, L Hotel appeals to the new generation of savvy and well-wheeled travellers who appreciate discerning aesthetics, novelty and timeless classics.

Paul Kerr, Chief Executive Officer of Small Luxury Hotels of the World, said: "We are delighted to welcome the stylish L Hotel in the lively area of Seminyak, Bali into the Small Luxury Hotels of the World family. With its contemporary design, highly personalised service and attention to the smallest detail, the hotel is set to be one of the most exciting new properties on the island. The hotel has a distinct character but reflects the local surroundings and culture – especially the renowned Balinese hospitality - which is what we're all about at SLH."

DESIGN

Luxuriate in L Hotel's 30 plush suites which span three floors. All suites are furnished with pristine white marble walls and a bespoke handcrafted piece of Balinese ceiling ornament – the main feature of each suite. The suites are clothed in warm hues of rich timber, greys, white ivory along with dashes of bright colours accompanied by mood lighting and luxurious threads – linens that set the stage for a quintessential boutique hotel experience.

The interior design is created to evoke emotive experiences with the interplay of iconic fixtures and materials. In the room also sits a modern daybed, lined with fuchsia pink and sunshine-orange pillows, adjacent that bring Balinese light into the room. At a side adjacent to the bathroom, the living area table doubles up as a functional desk for writing or simply laying down the cocktails and graze-sized bites for some in-room pampering.

Shower in luxury in its marble-clad bathrooms which come with Kiehl's range of toiletries, a Vanity Kit and double rain showers cleverly separated from the WC by a timber panel. All Suites come with iPod docks, LCD TVs, DVD players, safes, double-lock doors and complimentary Wi-Fi. There are also 4 connecting rooms on each floor with two twin rooms connected to two king rooms, perfect for families on holiday.

For breakfast, visit Lola. Located at the mezzanine level just above the lobby, Lola oozes with intimate serendipity featuring an eye-catching lap pool that surrounds the bar and restaurant. In the evenings, the rooftop Luna Bar & Restaurant is the place to be. Overlooking the beautiful ocean and paddy fields and a view that takes in as much as your eyes can reach, Luna is the bar and restaurant of choice – made perfect with delicious teppanyaki and tandoori.
